

Diocese of Cyprus and the Gulf
Province of Jerusalem and the Middle East
Applications are invited for the post of Parish Priest
St John's – Muscat, Sultanate of Oman

Oman is a Muslim nation with a strategic position in the Gulf, and its ports have been used for trading for centuries. There is a strong Anglican link going back to the 1800s through visiting sailors and missionaries. With beaches, mountains and spring-fed wadis, it has a beautiful natural setting.

St John's is a recently established church with a vibrant multi-cultural community that seeks a parish priest to preach the Word, disciple the church, and reach out appropriately to the local community, including migrant workers and other expatriates. The role also requires working fruitfully with key stakeholders such as the Ministry of Religious Affairs, Embassies, and the sponsoring church.

As a young church, this is a challenging and rewarding position. Worship is in English. The role carries an expatriate remuneration package.
