Mothers' Union Midday Prayer (Tuesday)

God of light, lead us to justice and peace. Grant us that Your light may shine where we are, so that we share the life and the hope You have given us. We pray throughout the season of Advent, that love and peace will reign and abundant life will come to all Your children. We await the light of the world that has come to us in Jesus Christ, the Prince of Peace. We trust in Your steadfast care for all. You are our refuge and our strength. Amen.

Scripture Boost for Today

"I will strengthen them in the Lord, and in His name they will walk," declares the Lord. - Zechariah 10:12

Today's promise reminds us that we never walk in our own strength. God Himself strengthens us and guides every step we take. When our responsibilities feel heavy, or our hearts feel weary, the Lord becomes our inner strength.

Let us walk in His name today—with confidence and with peace, knowing that He empowers each one of us for every task and every season.

On this day in the second week of Advent, may we remember the precious gift of peace that Jesus brings. The same God who fills our lives with goodness is the One who calms every storm within us. His gift of peace remains beyond measure. May His peace guard our hearts, take away our worries, and shine through us to those around us. May we sing of His goodness and walk in His peace each day.

Prayer

Dear Lord, with every breath we take, we will sing of Your great goodness. You brought us light in the darkness. As we gather together during this time, let us remember the first coming of Your Son, Jesus. Scripture for Today

"So there was great joy in that city." - Acts 8:8

As we journey through Advent, we remember that wherever Christ is present, joy fills the atmosphere. Prayer

Lord Jesus, fill our hearts with Your joy that lifts burdens and brings hope. May Your presence in us bring joy to others, just as joy filled the city when Your word was received. Make us bearers of good news and peace to all whom we meet or talk to today. Amen.
