Licensed Ministry

Licensed Ministry (lay and ordained) offers a meaning way to use your gifts in worship, pastoral care, teaching, and mission. Lay Ministers have a leadership role serving alongside clergy to support people in faith and enable mission. An Ordained Minister is set apart to lead worship, preach, administer the sacraments, and provide pastoral oversight. For all those who feel so called, the Ministry Programme offers a process of academic, spiritual, pastoral, and practical formation and training. It's not about having all the answers, but about being willing to listen, to grow, and to step forward in faith. Take time to pray, reflect, and speak with others. Could this be the next step in your faith journey?

The natural progression of such a process of formation and training, looks as follows:
