

Diocese of Cyprus and the Gulf
Province of the Episcopal Church in Jerusalem and the Middle East

Dean

St Christopher's Anglican Cathedral, Manama, Bahrain

The Bishop of the Diocese of Cyprus and the Gulf, the Rt Revd Sean Semple, and the Council of St Christopher's Anglican Cathedral in Manama seek to appoint a committed, pastoral and experienced priest to lead a thriving and long-established church in the Kingdom of Bahrain.

St Christopher's has multicultural English-speaking congregations, as well as a Tamil-language congregation led by an Associate Priest who works closely with the Cathedral Dean to support the continued growth of St Christopher's and its sister church at Awali.

The successful candidate will lead and serve congregations from a rich range of church traditions, in a role that is well-regarded in the wider community.

The successful candidate will be offered: stipend, pension, medical insurance, housing, car, and schooling for up to 3 children (if applicable) at the prestigious St Christopher's School. The Cathedral and Deanery are located in the centre of the city.

An application pack is available from the Bishop's PA, Panayiota Assarioti (pa@cypgulf.org)

Applicants are encouraged to learn more about the Diocese at www.cypgulf.org and Facebook

Application closing date: 13/11/2026

Candidates will be informed: 25/11/2026

Interview date: 02/12/2026
